2.2. In case it is determined that the Client performs any of the described activities or uses, myPOS Service shall be suspended with immediate effect.

3. General Requirements.

3.1. Client must not copy, store, transfer, sell, purchase, provide, exchange or in any manner disclose Cardholder's payment instruments personalized security characteristics, such as usernames or password for use of wallets or cardholder data such as PAN, PIN, CVV, CVC or other of payments cards or similar, provided by us, referred to as "security characteristics of Cardholders' payment instruments", to anyone other than us, or in response to a valid regulatory body demand. Client is deemed to be responsible for the conduct of its employees, agents, sub-contractors and representatives. In case of unauthorized or unlawful storing, access and processing of security characteristics of Cardholders' payment instruments, Client shall immediately inform us in writing, stating the compromised security characteristics of Cardholders' payment instruments.

3.2. Each party shall, at all times, comply with its respective obligations under all applicable data protection legislation in relation to all personal data that is processed by it in the course of performing its obligations under this Agreement. Client shall bring into effect and maintain all technical and organizational measures to prevent unauthorized or unlawful processing of personal data and accidental loss or damage of personal data, including taking reasonable steps to ensure the reliability of employees having access to the personal data.

3.3. Client must keep and store in a secure way all information regarding transactions on Client website, and parties to those transactions, including shipping documents and receipts of delivery of goods or services. When requested to do so by us, Client must provide us, within 72 hours, all information available to it regarding transactions, and parties to those transactions, including but not limited to: orders, shipping documents and receipts of delivery, and other documents as we might need for the purposes of claims, chargebacks, reversals, refunds or prevention or deterrence of crime, and to meet its regulatory obligations and risk management objectives. Client should keep any such requests and any further action taken by us in respect of those requests, confidential. We may, where we consider appropriate, pass on any information received from Client to the relevant regulatory bodies.

3.4. A Client must not submit to us a transaction that Client knows or should have known to be fraudulent or not authorized by the Cardholder, or that it knows or should have known to be authorized by a Cardholder colluding with Client for a fraudulent purpose. We are entitled upon our sole discretion and at any time, without prior notice to Client and for security or regulatory purposes to impose various limits unilaterally on the amount of authorized transactions or redemption of e-money or other transactions, such as single, daily, weekly, monthly or other limits. If it is not against our regulations we shall inform Client about such limits in Client online account or via e-mail within reasonable time. Where we reasonably suspect that Client has a substantial percentage of fraudulent transactions, Client must respond to any fraud related questions submitted by phone or email within 24 hours and propose reasonable measures to reduce the fraud.

3.5. Client must implement such security and other measures as requested by us, our sub-contractors or Regulators, within reasonable period of time and without delay. Client understands and agrees that new rules, regulations and requirements related to the Service can be imposed by Regulators, including Card schemes, and therefore we shall be entitled to unilaterally update Client Acceptance Policy in case of such changes, for which Client shall be informed within reasonable period of time.

3.6. Client warrants that Client is the rightful and beneficial owner/user of all websites and associated domain names, as well as of the client business activity and entity approved by us, in relation to which the Services under this Agreement are provided. Client warrants that Client is not acting on behalf of a third party. In case of change of this Client must immediately notify us in writing via e-mail. Client is not entitled in any way to lease or provide in other way the mobile POS for use by third parties, without our explicit written consent.

3.7. Client shall be obliged to use the mobile POS in good faith and with the care of professional and only for executing of valid transactions for payment with cards with the logo of Card schemes, in compliance with our instructions on activation and use of the mobile POS.

3.8. If applicable, the Client must undertake POS asset management on a regular basis, including all of the following:

- i) Record all stock and serial numbers of each device;
- ii) Record the location of device;
- iii) Basic electronic and physical identification, and authentication of each device.

4. Specific rules on transactions to be observed by Client. Client has the following rights and obligations in relation to the acceptance of payment cards:

4.1. Client has the right to refuse particular categories/brands of payment instruments, linked to a payment card, issued within the framework of a payment card scheme. The present paragraph shall not apply to consumer card-based payment instruments of the same brand and of the same category of prepaid card, debit card or credit card subject to interchange fees under the Regulation 2015/751. The Client may not refuse a payment instrument, linked to a card on the basis of the identity of the issuer or of the cardholder.

4.2. In case Client has decided to exercise its rights under art. 4.1. Client shall inform Cardholders of this, in a clear and unequivocal manner, at the same time as they inform Cardholders of the acceptance of other cards and payment instruments of the payment card scheme. Such information shall be displayed prominently at the entrance of the shop and at the till.

4.3. In the case of myPOS Virtual acquiring, the information under the present section 4 shall be displayed on the Client's website or other applicable electronic or mobile medium. The information shall be provided to the Cardholder in good time before the Cardholder enters into a purchase agreement with the Client.

4.4. In addition, in case of myPOS Virtual acquiring, Client must prominently display the Client country that will be deemed to be the country of the transaction during the process of the latter, on either the checkout screen used to present the final transaction amount or within the sequence of web pages that the Cardholder accesses during the checkout process. Client is hereby explicitly informed that Client cannot use a link to a separate page or similar methods in order to comply with the present article, unless the link forms part of the “click to accept” (or equivalent) acknowledgment and refers to the cancellation policy of the Client.

4.5. Client shall have the right to provide information about the interchange and service fee to the Cardholders.

4.6. Client shall have the right to steer Cardholders to the use any payment instrument preferred by the Client including by treating card-based payment instruments of a given payment card scheme more or less favourably than others.

4.7. If Client has been authorized to undertake any specific type of transaction, Client is automatically authorized to provide refunds of such transactions. Client must only refund transactions to the card used for the original transaction. Client shall not make any cash refund to the cardholder for return of any merchandise or services previously purchased with his/her card. In such case, the refund shall be made solely by crediting the cardholder’s card. Refund transactions can only be made as credit transactions, under the respective terms and conditions of the Card schemes for such types of transactions.

4.8. In case the Client is authorized to accept payments with AMEX cards the amount of a credit transaction performed on the POS terminal of the Client cannot be different from the amount of the original purchase transaction. In accordance with AMEX rules the Client is obliged to initiate a credit operation to the Cardholder within 7 days as of the receipt of a reasonable request for a refund; and

4.9. Client must not undertake transactions for anything other than the described offers and activity of Client and genuine purchase of goods and services, which Client offers; and

4.10. Client floor limit is zero and all transactions must be authorized by Issuer and the respective Card scheme in compliance with its rules. Authorization can only confirm the lack of negative credit status of a Card and that the Card has not been reported as lost or stolen at the time of the transaction. Obtaining an authorization does not guarantee payment. If an authorization is not granted, Client must not continue to process the transaction; and

4.11. Chargeback ratio:

i) Client has to maintain a chargeback ratio up to 0.9% either calculated as count-to-sales or USD dollar-to-sales and/or 100 chargebacks presented in total per month for Visa/UPI/JCB Cards. Client acknowledges and accepts that we shall also monitor the allowed chargeback ratio and can at any moment decide to cease the Service without prior notice to Client in case Client is in breach of chargeback ratio.

ii) In MasterCard Clients are considered noncompliant when both of the following are true: (1) the total number of chargebacks is greater than 100, and (2) the chargeback ratio is greater than 1.5 %.

4.12. Fraud management:

i) Client must not exceed for VISA transactions 60 000 USD or equivalence in other currency of reported fraud and/or 0.9 % fraud-dollar-to sales-dollar or fraud count-to-sales count ratio of on a monthly basis.

ii) For VISA transactions: Clients that offer digital goods (incl. record stores, digital goods media – books, movies, digital artwork/images, music, digital goods – games, digital goods – applications, as well as any large digital goods merchants (irrespective of type of goods)) must not meet or exceed, on a monthly basis, any of the following:

(1) 20 000 USD or equivalence in other currency of reported fraud; and/or

(2) 300 fraud count; and/or

(3) 0.9% fraud-dollar-to-sales-dollar ratio.

iii) Clients are considered noncompliant in MasterCard when all of the following conditions are met in a given month:

(1) The total dollar amount (or local currency equivalent) of fraud transactions exceeds USD 50.000

(2) Fraud ratio is greater than 0.5%

(3) The percentage of monthly clearing volume processed using 3DS (including Data Only transactions) is less than 10 percent in nonregulated countries, or less than 50 percent in regulated countries.

iv) The term non-regulated refers to those countries without a legal or regulatory requirement for strong cardholder authentication. The term regulated refers to those countries with a legal or regulatory requirement for strong cardholder authentication.

v) The rights of the Client under 4.1., 4.2., 4.3. and 4.4. shall not apply in regard to payment instruments, issued by issuers, based outside the European Economic Area.

5. Requirements for Recurring payments:

5.1. Client shall require approval from us before offering recurring payments with payment cards in connection with Client offers. If Client has not received our prior approval, we may reject the payment transaction. If according to our reasonable opinion the Client misuses recurring payments, we may decline authorization or suspend the Service and Client's ability to offer recurring payments.

5.2. It shall be Client's responsibility to communicate the basis and terms of the recurring payment to the Cardholder in a fair, clear and transparent manner, at least at the point of payment, and capture the Cardholder's affirmative acceptance of such terms.. For electronic commerce (e-commerce) Clients, at the point of payment, must include the screen where Cardholders enter their card credentials and any screens that show a summary of the order (such as a shopping cart) before it is submitted for authorization by the Cardholder. Providing a link to another page that contains this information (such as a terms and conditions page), or otherwise requiring the cardholder to expand a message box or scroll down the page to see the terms, will not satisfy this requirement. At the least Client must provide information to and receive a permission from the Cardholder including the following:

- i) The transaction amount;
- ii) The frequency of the recurring charges (the fixed dates on or intervals at which the Recurring Transactions will be processed);
- iii) The duration for which Cardholder permission is granted;
- iv) Cardholder's acknowledgement of the Client's cancellation and refund policies;
- v) Where surcharging is permitted, Cardholder's acknowledgement of any surcharge assessed and the associated disclosures.
- vi) Clients that utilize a negative option billing model must also disclose the terms of the trial, including any initial charges, the length of the trial period, and the price and frequency of the subsequent subscription

5.3. Client must retain the Cardholder's permission for the duration of the recurring merchandise or services. Client must provide the Cardholder with advance notice of each instance of a recurring payment at least 5 days before it is due or if for any reason this is not practicable, must provide the Cardholder with as much advance notice as possible.

5.4. Client is prohibited from charging an amount for a recurring transaction that includes a partial payment for merchandise or services purchased in a single transaction or any finance charges. Client is prohibited from completing a recurring transaction beyond the duration expressly authorized by the Cardholder or if Client receives either a cancellation notice from the Cardholder or if the transaction was denied for any reason.

5.5. Client must provide the Cardholder with the ability to cancel a recurring payment at any time. Client must provide an online or electronic cancellation procedure. Client declares he is aware that in recurring payments the Cardholder may instruct the Issuer to discontinue the recurring payments to Client, in which case either the Issuer or/and we shall be obliged to discontinue the recurring payments, for which we shall not be liable.

5.6. Cardholder's written permission for a recurring transaction or a Mail/Phone Order Transaction must contain all of the following information:

- i) Account number;
- ii) Transaction date;
- iii) Transaction amount;
- iv) Authorization code, if any;

v) Cardholder signature;

vi) Client (merchant) name;

vii) Client (merchant) location;

viii) Description of merchandise or services.

5.7. Client is obligated to use the method of communication agreed between Client and Cardholder (email or any other electronic method) in order to (all points are applicable):

i) Send a confirmation at the time of enrolment in a subscription/recurring billing plan that provides the terms of the subscription, including the terms of a trial period when applicable, and clear instructions about how to cancel the subscription

ii) Send a receipt after every billing that includes clear instructions for how to cancel the subscription.

iii) Provide notification to Cardholder including the terms of the subscription and instructions about how a Cardholder may cancel the subscription, no less than three days and no more than seven days before the billing date if any of the following is true:

(1) For any subscription/recurring payment plan that bills a cardholder less frequently than every six months (180 days);

(2) A trial period, introductory offer, or any promotional activity has expired;

(3) The recurring transaction agreement has been changed, including, but not limited to any change to the amount of the recurring transaction.

5.8. Additional rules for Clients offering “free trial periods”:

i) Explicit consent: At the time of enrolment, Client must require the Cardholder to expressly consent to entering an ongoing subscription service for recurring payments.

ii) Enhanced Notification:

At the time of enrolment, Client must provide a copy (i.e., email or SMS/text, or other delivery method, if agreed with the Cardholder) of the terms and conditions of the subscription service to the Cardholder, even if no amount was due at the time. This must include:

(1) The start date of the subscription.

(2) Details of the goods/services.

(3) Ongoing transaction amount and billing frequency/date.

(4) Link or other simple mechanism to enable the Cardholder to easily cancel any subsequent transactions online.

(5) Confirmation that the Cardholder has agreed to a subscription, unless the Cardholder cancels.

iii) Explicit Transaction Receipts:

Client must disclose the following on transaction receipts:

(1) Length of any trial period, introductory offer, or promotional period, including clear disclosure that the Cardholder will be charged unless the Cardholder takes steps to cancel any subsequent transactions

(2) Transaction amount and date for the initial transaction (even if no amount is due) and for subsequent recurring transactions

(3) A link or other simple mechanism to enable the Cardholder to easily cancel any subsequent transactions online

iv) Reminder Notification

No less than three days and no more than seven days before the end of trial period, or whenever terms and conditions will change, the Client must send a reminder notification to the Cardholder that the subscription plan will commence if the Cardholder does not cancel it. This notification must include the basic terms of the subscription and instructions about how to cancel. This reminder can be completed by email message or any other electronic method.

v) Cancellation:

Client must provide an easy way for the Cardholder to cancel the subscription or payment method online, regardless of how the Cardholder initially interacted with the Client (for example, a pop-up store in a shopping mall, door-to-door sales, or a TV/Radio ad).

5.9. Expanded Dispute Rights for transactions where merchandise or digital goods have been purchased. Client can remedy the dispute by proving that it has acted appropriately, provided they can show that (a) the Cardholder expressly agreed to future transactions; and (b) the Client electronically notified the Cardholder (based on the details the cardholder provided) before processing new transactions following the trial/promotional period. This rule applies to services which were purchased by a Cardholder either:

- i) through a trial period; or
- ii) as a one-off purchase, and the cardholder was not clearly advised of further billing after the purchase date.

5.10. Up-Selling Transaction Requirements.

i) For the purposes of this document, the term “up-selling” means the sale of goods and services different from, and not affiliated with or a subsidiary of, the initial Client with whom the Cardholder initiates the Transaction.

ii) An up-selling Client must comply with all of the following:

(1) Clearly disclose to the Cardholder all of the following:

- (a) the name of the up-selling Client offering the goods and services in a manner that clearly differentiates the up-selling Client from the initial Client;
- (b) a description of the goods and services;
- (c) the length of any trial period, including clear disclosure that the Cardholder will be charged unless the Cardholder takes steps to cancel the subsequent Transaction;
- (d) the Transaction amount and Transaction Date;
- (e) The cancellation policy;

(2) Obtain the Cardholder’s express informed consent for any subsequent Transactions by requiring the Cardholder to do all of the following:

- (a) Enter the Cardholder’s Account Number for the subsequent Transactions;
 - (b) Enter the Cardholder’s name, address, and contact information;
 - (c) Perform an additional confirmatory action to indicate consent to the Transaction (for example: clicking a confirmation button).
- (3) Comply with all other Transaction processing requirements.

iii) For a Transaction involving up-selling, both of the following must occur:

(1) Before completing a Transaction, the initial Client must do all of the following:

- (a) Clearly disclose to the Cardholder all of the information specified in 5.10.ii(1) and the last 4 digits of the Account Number. If the first Transaction is an Electronic Commerce Transaction, this information must be clearly visible on the checkout screen.
- (b) At the time of the first Transaction, obtain express Cardholder consent for any subsequent Transactions. If the first Transaction is an Electronic Commerce Transaction, consent must be obtained via a “click-to-accept” button on the checkout screen.
- (c) Immediately after the first Transaction has been completed, send a Transaction Receipt to the Cardholder as specified in 5.10.ii(1) and the last 4 digits of the Account number.

(2) At least 7 days before initiating a subsequent Transaction, the up-selling Client must provide to the Cardholder written notification as specified in 5.10.ii)(1) and the last 4 digits of the Account number, if either:

(a) The terms of the agreement between the Client and the Cardholder have changed. The notification must also include the new terms and conditions.

(b) The transaction entails a trial period, introductory offer, or promotional period is going to end.

5.11. Negative Option Transaction Requirements.

i) For the purposes of this document, the term “Negative Option Client” means a Client that requires the Cardholder to expressly reject the Client’s offer of additional goods and/or services during the Transaction process or expressly decline to participate in future Transactions.

ii) A Negative Option Client must comply with all of the following:

(1) Obtain the Cardholder’s express informed consent by disclosing all purchase terms and conditions before initiating the initial Transaction, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) the name of the Client offering the goods and services;

(b) a description of the goods and services;

(c) the Transaction amount and Transaction Date (including for each recurring charge);

(d) the length of any trial period, including clear disclosure that the Cardholder will be charged unless the Cardholder take steps to cancel the subsequent Transaction;

(e) the cancellation policy;

(2) Provide a simple mechanism for the Cardholder to cancel charges;

(3) Comply with all other transaction requirement.

iii) A negative option Client must do all of the following:

(1) Before completing an agreement or Transaction, clearly disclose to the Cardholder all of the information specified in 5.11. ii) and the last 4 digits of the Account Number. If the Client sends a Transaction Receipt or notification via email, a link to a page on the Client’s website where the agreement, order, or any subsequent Transaction can be easily cancelled. If the initial Transaction is an Electronic Commerce Transaction, this information must be clearly visible on the checkout screen.

(2) At the time of the agreement or first Transaction, obtain express Cardholder consent for any subsequent Transactions. If the first Transaction is an Electronic Commerce Transaction, consent must be obtained via a “click-to-accept” button on the checkout screen.

(3) Immediately after the first Transaction (if applicable) and Cardholder consent to subsequent Transactions, send to the Cardholder a Transaction Receipt (if applicable) or written confirmation, as specified in 5.11. ii) and the last 4 digits of the Account Number.

(4) At least 7 days before initiating a subsequent Transaction, provide written notification to the Cardholder as specified in 5.11.ii) and the last 4 digits of the Account Number, if either:

(a) The terms of the agreement between the Client and the Cardholder have changed. The notification must also include the new terms and conditions;

(b) A trial period, introductory offer, or promotional period is going to end.

5.12. Where Client agrees with the Cardholder to receive recurring payments, we shall facilitate the transaction between Client and the Cardholder, but we shall be under no obligation to enforce any contractual obligations for payment by the Cardholder to Client or for delivery of Client’s goods or services to the Cardholder. We make no representation and give no undertaking or warranty that recurring payments will be made by the Cardholder. We shall be under no responsibility to enforce the recurring payment arrangement against the Cardholder.

5.13. Additional Requirements for Recurring payments are outlined in pt. 10.8 of this Policy in relation to Clients processing payment transactions with AMEX-branded cards.

5.14. In case of a chargeback initiated by the Cardholder for a recurring transaction and in order for the Client to successfully dispute the chargeback, Client must:

- i) Provide documentation proving that the transaction was recurring. Examples included but are not limited to: The Client providing proof that the Cardholder had to click to accept the recurring terms and conditions or the cardholder signed a contract agreeing to the recurring terms and conditions.
- ii) For Cardholders executing recurring transactions with VISA-branded cards, the documents that Client should provide in order to justify recurring transaction includes:
 - (1) Evidence of a legally binding contract held between the Client and the Cardholder;
 - (2) Proof regarding Cardholder's use of the merchandise or services;
 - (3) Evidence of a previous transaction that was not disputed.
- iii) For Cardholders executing recurring transactions with MasterCard-branded cards the Client retains the Cardholder's written agreement to the terms of a recurring payment transaction. The Client must not deliver products or perform services pursuant to a recurring payment transaction after receiving notification of its cancellation by us or the Cardholder or that the Account on file is not to be honoured.

5.15. Client acknowledges and accepts that Client shall refund the full amount paid by Cardholder if the Client has not adhered to the terms of the sale or service or the present Acceptance Policy.

6. Requirements for Pre-Authorization transactions (the rules provided for cruise lines, Automobile/Vehicle Rental Companies apply only to clients of iCard AD):

6.1. Client may be entitled to use Pre-Authorization functionality only if it meets the conditions set in the present Acceptance policy and/or correspondent to the Legal agreement for the Service and:

- i) performs business activity as hotel, cruise line or a vehicle rental company;
- ii) ensures Cardholder's prior consent to incur Pre-Authorization transactions by including such clause in his General Terms and Conditions or other document regulating the legal relationship between Client and Cardholder;

6.2. A Pre-Authorization confirmation transaction must be completed within 30 calendar days of the transaction date of the initial Pre-Authorization transaction.

6.3. Client is allowed to initiate Pre-Authorization transaction only for payments on the following services:

- i) Damage to rental vehicles;
- ii) Food or beverage charges;
- iii) Fuel;
- iv) Goods and services purchased aboard a vessel of a Cruise Line;
- v) Insurance;
- vi) Parking tickets and other traffic violations;
- vii) Rental fees;
- viii) Room charges; and
- ix) Taxes.

6.4. If Client is a Vehicle Rental Company and Pre-Authorization transaction is used for covering expenses for parking tickets or penalties for violation of traffic legislation, Client must provide us with the following documentation issued by appropriate civil authority:

- i) The license number of the rental vehicle;
- ii) The time and the location of the violation;
- iii) The statute violated; and
- iv) The amount of the penalty in the local currency of that civil authority;

6.5. If Client is a vehicle rental company and Pre-Authorization transaction is used for covering of damages:

i) Client must provide us with the following documentation issued by appropriate civil authority:

- (1) A copy of the rental agreement;
 - (2) An estimate of the cost of the damage from an organization that can legally provide repairs;
